

Middle-earth: The White Hand (December 1997)

Card List (122 Cards)

Original Promotional Material: This 122 card expansion set for the MECCG is fully compatible with both Middle-earth: The Wizards and Middle-earth: The Lidless Eye. Now you can play a fallen Wizard like Saruman. Using resources from both METW and MELE, you act-not for Sauron or the Free Peoples, but for your own cause!

Each of the five Wizards is driven by a different theme, which can become his obsession. these obsessions are reflected in each corrupted Wizard's abilities and goals. A corrupted Wizard can build a deck of both good and evil resources. He will use any means to achieve his ends. Still, he can only exert his influence and control over the weaker heroes and minions. More powerful characters can sense his greed and weaknesses, for the strong know when a foe is no longer in tune with the Balance of Things.

Sold in booster packs of 12 cards (36 boosters per display); 2 rares, 4 uncommons and 6 commons per booster pack; r#: printed # times on the rare sheet, u#: # times on the uncommon sheet, c#: # times on the common sheet; the higher #, the more common a card is within its category.
